

Powering Industry Forward

Competence in Coal-Fired Power Plants and associated industries weighing feeding

screening automation

Schenck Process provides innovative and market leading solutions for weighing, feeding and automation duties in coal-fired power plants and associated industries.

Examples of products are coal and limestone feed systems, valves, environmental controls, bulk material handling systems and en-masse conveyors and bucket elevators.

we make processes work

